

Your Constant Love, O God of Might

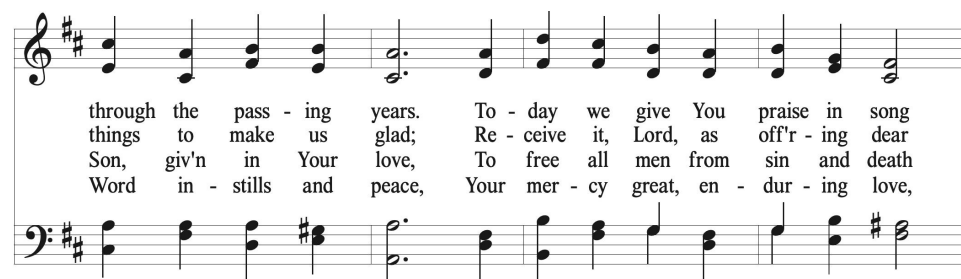

Written by Harold H. Brauer

August 7, 1977

Rev. Brauer wrote this hymn in honor of the dedication of the new church for Faith Lutheran Church, Marinette, WI on September 25, 1977. Rev. Brauer had been influential in establishing this congregation. The hymn is based on Psalm 40. The hymn tune is O Heilige Dreifaltigkeit (Almighty Father, Heaven and Earth), Nikolaus Herman, 1560.

1 Your con - stant love, O God of might Has kept us
2 You've blessed our plans for this new house And done great
3 Here help us tell how You can save Through Christ, Your 4 Our lips must speak a - bout Your grace, The hope Your through the pass - ing years. To - day we give You praise in song things to make us glad; Re - ceive it, Lord, as off'r - ing dear Son, giv'n in Your love, To free all men from sin and death

Word in - stills and peace, Your mer - cy great, en - dur - ing love,

For care that puts to rest our fears.
And let it show what joy we've had.
And bring them to Your home a - bove.
Till cold, still death makes prais - es cease.

5 So keep us happy in Your trust,
Secure and safe by power divine.
As we Your will desire to do,
Rejoice in sharing love like thine.

6 Let praise and thanks then be our theme
While life and breath and strength remain
In telling those who round us live
The greatness fo Your saving name.
