

Psalm 84

Written by Harold H. Brauer

May 15, 1976

Rev. Brauer noted; "This was the product of an effort to put into verse and singable form one of my favorite Psalms." He completed this work in 1976, not long before he retired. The staff of the North Wisconsin District used it at one of its weekly devotions before he left his role as Missions and Stewardship Counselor. The date noted for the writing of this hymn was the 40th wedding anniversary of Harold and Edna Brauer. The hymn tune is Old Hundreth, Genevan Psalter, 1551.

1 How glad I am, my liv - ing Lord, To 2 It guides thru life, this Word from You, For 3 Each pass - ing day Your care a - new Pro - 4 Oh, hear my prayer, al - might - y Lord: To 5 My Sun and Shield, guard me from harm, For meet with friends a - round Your Word, With - in Your house to trav - el as a pil - grim true. Each val - ley dry You vides the strength to car - ry thru; Thus all can see that those who rule Your help af - ford; Lead all to know 'tis trust in You drives out a - larm. With - hold no good when join in praise With nest - ing birds that trust Your ways.

make a spring For bless - ing and for strength - en - ing.
You are God And seek naught but Your peo - ple's good.
bet - ter still To share Your house and do Your will.
right is done; Lead each one on to heaven's bright home.